

Rosemary Flanigan Named to Starr Women's Hall of Fame

The Center is honored that Rosemary Flanigan, PhD, as well as two longtime supporters of the Center's work – Mary Kay McPhee and SuEllen Fried – were named to the Starr Women's Hall of Fame class of 2017. Sister Rosemary is a past president of the Center's board of directors, and served on our staff as a program associate from 1992 to 2010. In the Hall of Fame, she joins Myra Christopher, former president and CEO of the Center and currently its Kathleen Foley Chair for Pain and Palliative Care. Myra is a member of the Hall's inaugural class. The Hall is dedicated to recognizing extraordinary Kansas City women and preserving the history of their accomplishment.
